ESE Kongress: Submission Form Preview

IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTE FOR SPEAKERS

Upload of papers and presentations – copyright

Please make sure that ...

1. you protect the rights of the owners of the related content,
2. you own the rights of use to publish copyright-protected content,
3. you have fulfilled the obligation to identify any copyright as requested by the copyright owner.

By uploading, ...

1) you assert that the use of the paper does not violate the rights or claims of third parties,
2) you grant MicroConsult Academy GmbH, Charles-de-Gaulle-Str. 6, 81737 Munich, and Vogel Communications Group GmbH & Co. KG, Max-Planck-Str. 7/9, 97082 Würzburg (jointly referred to as the organizer of ESE Kongress), the nonexclusive right to use, unrestricted in terms of content, space and time ...

- to publish the paper abstract, images, your vita and photo in whole or in part for editorial purposes (e.g. reporting, newsletter) and for marketing the event (e.g. event website, social media, agenda brochure),
- to store presentations digitally in the submitted format (e.g. PowerPoint file, pdf file, video) and to make them available to event attendees, subject to password protection,
- to stream your presentation live during your designated presentation slot and make it available to attendees via Zoom or via a comparable video conference platform (making available to the public); there will be no permanent recording of your presentation with communication to attendees afterwards, and
- to publish your conference paper in the conference proceedings and to make it available to event attendees, subject to password protection.

Your copyright protection remains unaffected by this. The organizer is not permitted to transfer the rights of use to third parties.

If the presentation you give at the conference and/or the paper you provide contains multimedia content (e.g. images, videos) with recognizable persons (e.g. employees), you affirm that these persons have irrevocably consented to the publication and distribution of their image contained in the presentation and/or paper to the extent regulated in these instructions. At the request of the organizer, corresponding declarations of consent shall be submitted.

Important note:
When applying as a speaker, you confirm that you have read our Guidelines for the conference proceedings and agree to submit a paper for the conference proceedings according to the specs and deadlines as stated in the guidelines.
